Subject- Invitation for NATCON, National Conference of Respiratory Diseases and TB

Respected Sir/ Ma'am,

This is to bring to your kind notice that Department of Respiratory Medicine, MM Institute of Medical Sciences and Research, Mullana, Ambala, has been given the prestigious opportunity to hold 76th NATCON the National Conference of Chest Diseases and TB, which will be held in MM Continental Hotel, under the aegis of TB Association of India, from 11th-13th April, 2022.

The President of India Shri Ram Nath Kovind is the Patron of the Association.

The theme for this year's conference is Healthy Lung for Healthy Body: Illuminate TB to Eliminate TB. This conference will be instrumental and pioneering towards achieving the Goal to End TB by 2025 and reducing suffering from chest diseases.

Nurses are important member of team. They play a key role in prevention, diagnosis, treatment and palliative management of Chest Diseases and TB,

We have kept a separate session on Role of Nurses in Chest Diseases and Tuberculosis.

This event will be an academic feast and would be attended by National and International Faculty and Delegates.

We request for your patronage and guidance and whole hearted support towards making this event a grand success. It will have big impact on the policymakers and the workers at the ground level alike. I very humbly invite your gracious presence at this academic event and to bless us with your wisdom.

You are also requested to circulate this letter to all Nursing Institutes affiliated under you. Kindly send Name of Principal, Name of College, Email and Phone to us as well.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Dr. Jai Kishan Karahya
